The Three R's at Haviland

We, the Seniors of the Haviland-Scott School, are happy to present this 1946 edition of the Havilook. We feel especially honored in being able to make this presentation, since the Classes of '44 and '45 were denied that privilege, due to the shortages of materials and personnel necessitated by World War II. In the pages that follow, you will find some recordings of school activities, social events, and happenings of our glamorous, studious, yet almost boyless class. We realize that this book will mean more to us than to any one else, because there are scenes behind the printed scenes, which are familiar to us, yet foreign to you, that will make this "HAVILOOK" become dearer to us as the years roll by.

Firmly believing that we have been sufficiently trained from the halls of science, literature, history, and mathematics to cope with conditions which will confront us, we now boldly launch out into new fields of activity which will daily match our wits.

We feel physically fit to combat the forces of disease and pestilence (which we must expect to come our way) since our training has been adequate in personal hygiene. In the realm of the spiritual, we are specially fortunate because through our teaching personnel, we have learned by precept and example, our relationship to man and our responsibility to God.

The graduates of the previous years of the Haviland-Scott School have proved that our optimism is well grounded. Their records are enviable to any people, and they have demonstrated that they can take it on the street, in the field, in the office, or if need be, on the field of battle. This institution is indeed proud of its Alumni.

So long as pupils can enjoy the blessings, teachings, and privileges such as has been ours in the Haviland-Scott School, so long shall democracy survive.

We Seniors appropriate these following pages to our fellow students of Haviland-Scott High, who have helped in every way possible to make our school career enjoyable as well as educational. As we look over their pictures in years to come, we will not try to forget them but enjoy remembering them and their deeds done for us. May your school life be made as enjoyable to you as you have helped to make ours enjoyable to us.

Last Will and Testament

We, the class of 1946 being mentally awake, physically strong, morally straight and being desirous of setting our worldly affairs in order, while we can do so satisfactorily, do hereby make, publish, and declare our last will and testament.

To the faculty we leave our sincere thanks for guiding us through our high school days and being so patient with our ignorance.

To the juniors, we leave the name senior.

Marie leaves her load of books to anyone who is strong enough to pick 'em up. (Does anyone know the address of Atlas?)

Geneva leaves her day-off "Monday" to Garnett Bennett. (I'm hoping you can use it.)

Mentra leaves her ability to bluff the teachers to William Fast, (Hang on to it Willie, it might come in handy.)

Barbara leaves her ability to play basketball to Babe Bartels.

Sharon gives her giggles to Miss Shawley (Please take care of them, Miss Shawley; Sharon might want them back.)

Elaine leaves her L. C. Smith typewriter to Ruby Craft. (Gee are you lucky!)

Wilma leaves her ability to talk to anyone but the teacher in Chemistry class to anyone who thinks he or she can get by with it.

LaVerna leaves her ability to squeeze out of tight jams to Gene Scarbrough. (You don't happen to need this do you, Gene?)

Bob leaves his ability to be the Lone Wolf to Lafie Leeth. (Take good care of this; you might need it.)

In the Future

As I look over the ten years that have passed and the people that have come and gone, I can't help but think of my dear Classmates of "'46" and ponder upon what they have worked to become.

By reading the evening paper, I see that our only male classmate, Robert Hough, is having quite a bit of difficulty. The workers at the Kicka-poo-joy Juice Plant (which he supervises) has suddenly gone out on strike because Bob refuses to let the workers buy all of the products that they make. The whole nation demands settlement in Bob's favor because his products are becoming quite scarce.

Who else is on the front page tonight? Oh, yes, that's Marie Titler, heading the Prohibition Party for this next election. They wanted to get someone else up for candidate, but Marie, to accommodate, decided to run. Vote for Titler.

Well, if it isn't old Squeesey-Weesey burying his head in the ground again. I don't know where Mentra Beech gets all of her cleverness but her comic strips really afford a good, big laugh.

There's a plane overhead and who could it be flapping her wings? Wilma Kauser, of course. She just made her daily routine flight as pilot from London to Hawaii for the United Airlines. She makes the flight in less than 10 minutes and spends the rest of the day teaching the girls a new step in the Hula-Hula Dance.

Barbara Sherer, who has always had that feminine appeal and has been used to having "swarms" around her, is now working in the New York Tie Shop, "Manly Atlas," where men flock to buy the latest ties. The sales talk must be very interesting.

I remember that there was at least one scholarly student that came forth from our class. La Verna Gantt, who is now President of Yale College, sends her classmates pamphlets each week urging them to become educated. She says that it isn't smart to be dumb.

Geneva Decker has become well known in Hollywood for her figure, acting ability, and gracefulness. I read that she is the Hep-cat Dancer in the Show "Dig You Later."

Sharon Gantt has always been crazy about water and what goes with it so we naturally find her on the "Sharie Cruiser" as the Hostess of the Ship. She really gets around.

Now we find Elaine Hebb seated in her office, struggling over some papers that she says must be completed by tomorrow morning. She tells me that she is writing the script for the Bugs Bunny Show and can't figure out "What's up, Doc?"

I guess that finishes today's paper. What do you suppose tomorrow's news will tell?

Past and Present

Yesterday-Freshmen; today-Seniors; tomorrow-Alumni-so seems the cycle of our school life. How the time does fly!

When the dear Class of '46 started its great career as Freshmen in 1942, it seemed to us that we were very insignificant to our upper classmen and almost as though it was impossible that we could ever become the sophisticated Seniors. For our adviser, we chose Miss Burner, who was very capable, and if we dare say, a lot of fun. The class was composed of Robert Hough, Pres.; Marie Titler, Sec.-Treas.; Barbara Sherer, Vice-Pres.; Lela Mae Rodman, Chester Funk, Elaine Hebb, Wesley Zartman, Mentra Beech, Irene Sacco, Richard Gerber, Sharon Gantt, LaVerna Gantt and Geneva Decker.

As we passed from Freshmen to Sophomores, we began to feel the glory of being the older classmen and established for ourselves a place in the Haviland High. Mr. Ayers took the terrible risk of accepting the job of being our adviser but did a very neat job. He helped us a great deal by guiding over us at basketball games, parties and other social functions. For our other officers, we chose Elaine Hebb as President and Mentra Beech as Sec'y-Treas. It seemed as though that good soil looked better to Dick Gerber and Wesley Zartman than the dear school teachers and text books because we lost them during this second year. Irene Sacco also left our forces to go to Paulding High. Chester Funk decided that his father just couldn't get along without him so he retired from school life to take up the blacksmith trade. During this same year, we welcomed Wilma Kauser into our class, who came from the Latty School. This left us a total of ten members to start out on our Junior Year.

Now, we were next best to Seniors, we thought as we entered our Junior year. This was the year that we began doing things. We inherited the candy stand from the former Junior Class, had our big Junior Class Play, and took Seniors on a trip to Toledo. For our busy year, Mr. Ayers again advised us and what a very capable and kindly adviser he was. I'm sure that our class will never forget the wonderful guidance in both our school and our spiritual life that Mr. Ayers and his wife gave to us during those two years. All our class remained faithful and cooperative during the year and we selected Geneva Decker for President and Marie Titler for Sec'y-Treas.

Now, we are coming in home. As we became Seniors, we took the responsibility of editing this HAVILOOK, giving the Senior Class Play "Brother Goose" and the other activities that we as Seniors enjoy. Mr. Ensign has been very instructive to us on compiling and printing our Annual and Mrs. Ensign has been very kind in helping us with our play and other class problems. Elaine Hebb was elected President, Sharon Gantt, Sec'y-Treas., LaVerna Gantt, Vice-Pres. and Marie Titler, HAVILOOK Editor. It seemed as though married life looked pretty good to one of our classmates because we lost Lela Mae Rodman during the year. As we nine Seniors of '46 come to the Baccalaureate and Commencement season, we cannot help but feel a bit sad to think of giving up all of these pleasures and companionships, but we also realize that we cannot hang on to the past but must reach out into the future so we lay down our title as Seniors and become the Freshmen Alumni.

RELAXATION

Relaxation is the favorite occupation of most students. Sports and activities are cheerfully welcomed by all and enthusiastically engaged in. The students are very proud and appreciative of recreation in the form of sports, music, dramatics, etc., in which they can participate. It is our own belief that these so-called extra curricular activities, play a major part in building the character of our future citizens.

RAY CRAFT

Many things enter into the making and value of a basketball team. The players, of course, in themselves are the main factor, but something else is needed. Behind the scenes stand two boys, our managers, who are always ready and willing to aid and care for our team. Then too, come our cheerleaders, the colorful factor in every game. They create the enthusiasm and confidence that backs up our team. Three cheers for three grand groups: teams, managers and cheerleaders.

SYNOPSIS

Jeff Adams, an architect by day and a general cleaner-upper for his orphaned brother and sisters by evening, persuades Peggy to help him with his task. Lenore Hudson, a wealthy girl, attempts to win Jeff away from his family. Hy puts a crimp in Lenore's plans, but Peggy shields Hy and takes the blame herself. Jeff flares up at her. Peggy, thinking she doesn't have a chance to compete with Lenore, leaves. Jeff realizes that he cares only for Peggy, so Hy, aided by her football team, brings Peggy back and all ends happily.

DIRECTOR THERON RAY

SYNOPSIS

The entire action takes place in the Library in the town of Forest Hill.

Stan Gray, having failed in a number of business ventures, is about to give up. He and his friends have a great idea. Sibley, his best girl, betrays a trust to his enemy, Ray Cryder. Peggy Brooks stands by him, and he becomes successful again.

Time

CALENDAR

AUGUST

27. School opens with two new teachers added to the faculty. Miss Shawley and Mr. Ray.

SEPTEMBER

3. Labor Day—No school.
4. Teachers' Institute—No school.
6. Everyone is enjoying the Van Wert County Fair.
19-21. School in the mornings and Paulding Fair in the afternoons.

OCTOBER

3. Freshmen Hayride. (That evening air does get a little chilly, doesn't it?)
24. G.A.A. at Y.W.C.A. The evening was spent in swimming, eating and skating.
25. The seniors are really up in the air. They had their pictures taken on top of the school building.
26. Teachers' Institute—Oh, if it weren't for these vacations!
30. Some of the tricks that magician didn't pull.

NOVEMBER

3. Took bus to Columbus to see Ohio State and Northwestern play. Ohio State (our team) won. Why was the rear of the bus so popular on the way home?
13. First basketball game of the season with Union, at Haviland. We went home with a big victory.
16. Basketball game with Grover Hill. They were defeated.
20. Hoaglin-Jackson game here. Keep up the good work, boys.
21. Marie, did you have to spill those beads? Didn't we have enough exercise last night.
Thanksgiving Program.
23-24. No school
26. Mr. Bell visited school.
Game at Antwerp. Our boys weren't hitting that night.

DECEMBER

3. 42 absent from school with flu and mumps.
6. Seniors suggested that they close school for awhile and they agreed. For once we Seniors rated.

Marches On

CALENDAR

DECEMBER—

- 13. Tried to have school but success was with us. We didn't.
- 18. Back to school again.
- 21. Closed for Christmas vacation.
Game at Latty. Gee we're hoping Williams will be back and ready to go for the next game.

JANUARY

- 2. School reopens after Christmas vacation.
- 11. Antwerp here. We put up a good fight, had a good cause, but lost the game.
- 17. You should have seen those kids posing. Could it have been that they were getting pictures taken?
- 17. Union girls at Haviland for two ball games. Our girls won both games.
- 18. Game at Payne. Their victory, darn it!
- 22. Game at Grover Hill. Reserves were out for victory and got it.
- 25. Game at Oakwood. Too bad, boys.
- 29. Freshmen skating party at Y.W.C.A. Turned out to be a free for all
- 30. Be sure to take someone with you the next time, girls. You should have seen Barbara and Wilma trying to get out of that mud.

FEBRUARY

- 1. Game with Latty. They played a little better than we did.
Seniors had party at Kauser's after game. More fun.
- 19-20. Tournament. Luck just wasn't with us. Antwerp won the tournament.
- 20-21. Farmers' Institute.
- 22-23. Tournament.

MARCH

- 1. HAVILOOK goes to press.
- 15. Junior Class Play.

MAY

- 10. Senior Class Play. "Brother Goose."
- 12. Baccalaureate Services. Reverend Ayres.
- 15. Commencement.
- 17. Hurray ! ! School is out.

If you see some fellow tryin'
For to make some project go,
An' you can boost it up a trifle,
That's your clue to let him know,
That you're not going to knock it,
Just because it ain't your shout,
But that you're going to boost a little,
Cause he's got the best thing out.

Parting Memories

Twelve short years we have together,
Out of life's swift-moving span.
Years of laughter—years of friendship,
Having fun as just youth can.

The best times of our lives we shared,
But now it's drawing to a close,
Soon all of us must go our ways,
And the future, no one knows.

As we're walking toward tomorrow,
Toward the future, unafraid,
Dep among our cherished treasures
All our school days will be laid.

Yes, our lives are still before us,
Yet a little of each heart
Stays forever in these hallways
Where our fun first had its start.

Hand in hand we fare commencement
And know we needn't say goodbye:
For our lives are interwoven,
And our memories cannot die.
